

The Power of Focused Intent for New Year's Eve

Every year I have told my client's that there is a belief that one should have some money on their person on New Year's Eve, just as the clock strikes Midnight going into New Year's Day. The reason for this is that it is a symbol that the person will never be broke, and it affirms the idea of abundance.

If a person wants to focus on romance or a happy committed relationship, then they should have on their person (at midnight of New Year's Eve going into New Year's Day) something pink or something that represents this intent.

This action of intent can be used with Health, Spiritual Growth, as well as others. This can be done by again having something on the person at midnight that represents the intent to be manifested during the year.

I have found this to be a fun, and easy thing to do. Even during New Year's Eve Parties, I have found that the guests have enjoyed doing this, including children.

I wish everyone a wonderful and safe New Year's Holiday. Have lots of fun, but please remember to use designated drivers if you are drinking.
